

Chrono

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

National Intelligence Council

19 September 1985

The Honorable Malcolm Baldrige
Secretary of Commerce
Room 5854, Department of Commerce
15th and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20320

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As I indicated to you in our chat at the White House today, I will be leaving the government at the end of this month to become Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of [redacted]

[redacted] based here in Washington.

STAT

I am most pleased to have had the opportunity to work with you over the last two years on many difficult issues. I have gained great respect for your ability to articulate the issues and to put into perspective the challenges facing US business in this difficult environment. I wish you the very best of continued success in your efforts. I am sure that you will be able to count on continued support, information, and analysis from CIA.

As we discussed, perhaps you could send to my home address a photo with an inscription which notes our having worked together.

With great appreciation,

Sincerely,

David B. Low
National Intelligence Office for Economics

[redacted]

STAT